

Alisha Dishaw

PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT ASSOCIATE

Alisha Dishaw is a reliable resource for public engagement and intergovernmental relations processes. She organizes and assists with meetings of all sizes, from public events attended by hundreds of people, to smaller task force and advisory committee meetings. Her areas of specialization include securing the most appropriate venues for various meetings; planning for all details prior to the meetings, including scheduling, catering, travel, lodging and child care; registration; note-taking and summarizing results of the meetings; maintaining mailing lists and other data; and assisting with the execution of Web-based outreach efforts, such as online surveys, e-blasts and social media. Ms. Dishaw has a bachelor's degree in Human Development and Family Sciences from Oregon State University. Before joining COC, she was a task desk supervisor for a mortgage servicing company. Prior, she worked for the Community Based Activity Program (CBAP), a summer program for children with special needs.
