

ROBERT WISE ASSOCIATE PRINCIPAL

Bob specializes in visionary and practical approaches to sustainable development, strategic planning and public policy development. He was planning director or policy development advisor to four U.S. Governors (New York, Idaho, Arizona and Oregon) and served for seven years as the Executive Director of the Council of State Planning Agencies/National Governors' Association, the "think-tank" for U.S. governors. His work provides thought leadership, creativity and identification of benefits for all involved.

Areas of Expertise

- Sustainable Development
- City and Regional Planning
- Visioning and Strategic Planning
- Facilitation, Community Empowerment

Selected Project Experience

Sustainable Development Strategies

- Eco-Smart Master Plan, Langfang, China
- Eco-City 2050 Vision, Taipei, Taiwan
- Sustainable Development Action Plan, Taiwan Council for Economic Planning and Development
- Metro Sustainability Study, Portland
- Vision Action Network Sustainability Plan, Washington County
- Sustainability Master Plan, Palm Springs, CA
- Sustainability Action Plan, Corvallis Sustainability Coalition
- Multnomah County Initiative Food Summit, Multnomah County
- Master Plan, Clackamas County Soil and Water Conservation District

Economic and Industrial Development

- Portland Sustainable Foodshed Planning, USDA/Sustainable Agriculture Research and Education, Portland
- Regional Infrastructure, Metro, Portland
- Foodshed Strategic Plan, Clackamas County
- Peak Oil Implementation Plan, Portland Office of Transportation
- Green Building Cost and Economic Opportunity Research, Portland Bureau of Planning and Sustainability and Portland Development Commission
- Technical Trends in Natural Resources and Sustainable Development, Oregon Economic and Community Development Department

Development Projects

- Harmony Community Campus Vision and Conceptual Master Plan, Clackamas Community College and Clackamas County
- Portland State University District Plan
- Portland River District Financing Plan

Education

Master's degree, Public Administration, State University of New York at Albany

Bachelor's degree, Political Science, University of Idaho

Community Service

Sustainable Development Commission of Portland and Multnomah County

International Society of Sustainability Professionals

Institute for Market Transformation to Sustainability

Japanese Garden Society of Oregon

Portland-Multnomah County Sustainable Development Commission

Portland-Suzhou Sister City Association

Columbia Land Trust Conservation Committee

Honors

Theodore Roosevelt Rough Rider award from the Council of Governors' Policy Advisors, National Governors' Association

2010 Merit award for urban design, Langfang, China Eco-Smart City Master Plan from the Hong Kong Chapter, American Institute of Architects

Special Achievement in Planning Certificate of Merit from the American Planning Association, Oregon Chapter for The Green Economy: Agriculture, Natural Resources and Sustainable Development

503.278.3456
steve.faust@coganowens.com www.coganowens.com